FREEDMEN'S BUREAU PRESERVATION PROJECT

This National Archives microfilm publication is part of a multiyear project to microfilm the field office records of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands (Freedmen's Bureau). The project was made possible by the United States Congress through The Freedmen's Bureau Records Preservation Act of 2000 (Public Law 106-444). When completed, all of the field records for the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and for the District of Columbia will be available on microfilm. For microfilm availability and description, consult the current edition of the National Archives publication Microfilm Resources for Research: A Comprehensive Catalog. You can also view the National Archives microfilm locator on our web site at www.archives.gov.

INTRODUCTION

On the 90 rolls of this microfilm publication, M1903, are reproduced the previously unfilmed records of the Georgia staff offices and subordinate field offices of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865–1872. These records consist of bound volumes and unbound records, containing materials that include letters and endorsements sent and received, monthly reports, registers of patients, orders and circulars issued and received, and other records relating to freedmen's complaints and contracts. These records are part of the Records of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, Record Group (RG) 105.

This film series completes the reproduction of all Bureau records created in Georgia between 1865 and 1872. Many of these records were reproduced in 1969 in National Archives Microfilm Publications M798, Records of the Assistant Commissioner for the State of Georgia, Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865–1869, and M799, Records of the Superintendent of Education for the State of Georgia, Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865–1870.

HISTORY AND ORGANIZATION

The Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, also known as the Freedmen's Bureau, was established in the War Department by an act of Congress on March 3, 1865 (13 Stat. 507). The life of the Bureau was extended twice by acts of July 16, 1866 (14 Stat. 173), and July 6, 1868 (15 Stat. 83). The Bureau was responsible for the supervision and management of all matters relating to refugees and freedmen, and of lands abandoned or seized during the Civil War. In May 1865, President Andrew Johnson appointed Maj. Gen. Oliver Otis Howard as Commissioner of the Bureau, and Howard served in that position until June 30, 1872, when activities of the Bureau were terminated in accordance with an act of June 10, 1872 (17 Stat. 366). While a major part of the Bureau's early activities involved the supervision of abandoned and confiscated property, its mission was to provide relief and help freedmen become self-sufficient. Bureau officials issued rations and clothing, operated hospitals and refugee camps, and supervised labor contracts. In addition, the Bureau managed apprenticeship disputes and complaints, assisted benevolent societies in the establishment of schools, helped freedmen in legalizing marriages entered into during slavery, and provided transportation to refugees and freedmen who were attempting to reunite with their families or relocate to other parts of the country. The Bureau also helped black soldiers, sailors, and their heirs collect bounty claims, pensions, and back pay.

The act of March 3, 1865, authorized the appointment of Assistant Commissioners to aid the Commissioner in supervising the work of the Bureau in the former Confederate states, the border states, and the District of Columbia. While the work performed by Assistant Commissioners in each state was similar, the organizational structure of staff officers varied from state to state. At various times, the staff could consist of a superintendent of education, an assistant adjutant general, an assistant inspector general, a disbursing officer, a chief medical officer, a chief quartermaster, and a commissary of subsistence. Subordinate to these officers were the assistant superintendents, or subassistant commissioners as they later became known, who commanded the subdistricts.

The Assistant Commissioner corresponded extensively with both his superior in the Washington Bureau headquarters and his subordinate officers in the subdistricts. He prepared reports that he sent to the Commissioner concerning Bureau activities in areas under his jurisdiction, based upon reports submitted to him by the subassistant commissioners and other subordinate staff officers. He also received letters from freedmen, local white citizens, state officials, and other non-Bureau personnel. These letters varied in nature from complaints to applications for jobs in the Bureau. Because the assistant adjutant general handled much of the mail for the Assistant Commissioner's office, letters were often addressed to him instead of to the Assistant Commissioner.

In a circular issued by Commissioner Howard in July 1865, the Assistant Commissioners were instructed to designate one officer in each state to serve as "general Superintendents of Schools." These officials were to "take cognizance of all that is being done to educate refugees and freedmen, secure proper protection to schools and teachers, promote method and efficiency, correspond with the benevolent agencies which are supplying his field, and aid the Assistant Commissioner in making his required reports." In October 1865, a degree of centralized control was established over Bureau educational activities in the states when Rev. John W. Alvord was appointed Inspector of Finances and Schools. In January 1867, Alvord was divested of his financial responsibilities, and he was appointed General Superintendent of Education.

An act of Congress, approved July 25, 1868 (15 Stat. 193), ordered that the Commissioner of the Bureau "shall, on the first day of January next, cause the said bureau to be withdrawn from the several States within which said bureau has acted and its operation shall be discontinued." Consequently, in early 1869, with the exception of the superintendents of education and the claims agents, the Assistant Commissioners and their subordinate officers were withdrawn from the states.

For the next year and a half the Bureau continued to pursue its education work and to process claims. In the summer of 1870, the superintendents of education were withdrawn from the states, and the headquarters staff was greatly reduced. From that time until the Bureau was abolished by an act of Congress approved June 10, 1872 (17 Stat. 366), effective June 30, 1872, the Bureau's functions related almost exclusively to the disposition of claims. The Bureau's records and remaining functions were then transferred to the Freedmen's Branch in the office of the Adjutant General. The records of this branch are among the Bureau's files.

Constrained by limited resources, Southern opposition, and the politics of Reconstruction, the Bureau faced an enormous challenge in its efforts to assist the freedmen and refugees. Its relief efforts, without question, saved thousands of southerners from starvation. Its attempts to assist freedmen to become self-sufficient, to provide public education, administer justice, and, to a lesser degree, to provide land, all worked with varying degrees of success to lessen the difficulties during the transition from slavery to freedom. One of the Bureau's greatest legacies is the body of records it created and received during the course of its operations. These records are arguably some of the most important documents available for the study of the Federal Government's policies, efforts to reconstruct the South, and Southern social history and genealogy.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU IN GEORGIA

Organization

Bvt. Maj. Gen. Rufus Saxton, who had directed the "Port Royal Experiment," was appointed Assistant Commissioner for South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida. Saxton established his headquarters at Beaufort, SC, in June 1865, and assigned Gen. Edward A. Wild the responsibility for Bureau affairs in part of Georgia. In September 1865, after Wild was relieved from duty, the office of Assistant Commissioner for Georgia was established, and Brig. Gen. Davis Tillson was appointed as Acting Assistant Commissioner, with exclusive control of all matters concerning the Bureau in Georgia. Tillson reported To General Saxton in South Carolina until December 1865, when he was ordered to report thereafter directly to Commissioner Howard at Washington. Generally, the records pertaining to Georgia and Florida that were created during this early period are included among those of the Assistant Commissioner of South Carolina.

The organization of the Bureau in Georgia was similar to that of the Bureau headquarters in Washington. The Assistant Commissioner's staff included an assistant adjutant general, an assistant inspector general, a chief quartermaster and disbursing officer, and a superintendent of education. Three officers served as Assistant Commissioner in Georgia between 1865 and 1869 and located the Bureau offices in four different cities during that period. General Tillson first established his headquarters at Augusta in September 1865 but moved it to Savannah in October 1866. Col. Caleb C. Sibley succeeded Tillson as Assistant Commissioner in January 1867, and 2 months later he moved the headquarters from Savannah to Macon. It remained there until July 1867, when the office was transferred to Atlanta. In October 1868, Maj. John R. Lewis replaced Sibley as Assistant Commissioner. Lewis served until the office was discontinued in May 1869. From January to May 1869, Major Lewis combined the duties of Assistant Commissioner, with those of superintendent of education. After the office of the Assistant Commissioner was discontinued, Lewis continued to serve as superintendent of education until May 1870.

The major subordinate field offices for the Bureau in Georgia, for example, included those with headquarters at Albany, Americus, Athens, Atlanta, Augusta, Columbus, Macon, and Savannah. Under the direct supervision of the subassistant commissioners were the civilian and military agents. Occasionally, the Bureau retained military officers in a civilian capacity after the termination of their military service. For a list of selected Georgia subordinate field office personnel and their dates of service, see the Appendix.

Activities

The major activities of the Freedmen's Bureau in Georgia generally resembled those conducted in other states. The Bureau issued rations and provided medical relief to both freedmen and white refugees, supervised labor contracts between planters and freedmen, administered justice, and worked with benevolent societies in the establishment of schools.

When General Davis Tillson took over as Assistant Commissioner for the Freedmen's Bureau in Georgia in September 1865, many of the major cities and towns in the state were troubled with overcrowding, decease, and poverty. In the cities of Macon, Atlanta, Augusta, and Savannah, freedmen and refugees were living in some of the most crowded and deplorable conditions, and many were in dire need of food and clothing, shelter, and medical attention.[1] Convinced, however, that Federal Government relief should be temporary and solely for the needy, General Tillson issued an order on October 3, 1865, prohibiting the distribution of rations to freedmen and refugees who were able-bodied but refused work. To discourage idleness and dependency, Tillson further ordered that only those persons who were able to provide for themselves would be allowed to remain in the towns and cities. Those who desired to stay, said Tillson, "must be compelled, if necessary, to go to the country and accept places of labor found by themselves, or for them, by officers or agents of the Bureau."[2]

Tillson's orders were strictly enforced. One month after his pronouncement, rations issued in Savannah had been reduced from 120,000 to 60,000 per month. For the month of June of 1866, the number of rations issued for the entire State of Georgia totaled less than 20,000. However, in spite of the Bureau's "self-help" policy, limited resources, and the belief that local governments should play a greater role in providing relief for the destitute, the Georgia Bureau issued some 847,669 rations from June 1865 to September 1866. Although the Bureau's actions prevented wholesale starvation and untold suffering, the agency's rations-relief efforts were far less extensive than what Bureau officials had done during the same period in Alabama, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia. Tillson's successors, Assistant Commissioners Caleb C. Sibley (January 1867–October 1868) and John R. Lewis

(October 1868–May 1869) continued to follow the policy of providing limited rations relief. During their tenures, rations were issued only in emergencies and for the most part to hospitals and asylums.[3]

The Georgia Bureau's policy of temporary relief for the needy also guided its approach in providing medical care and assistance for the destitute. Like its ration program, the Bureau viewed its responsibility as one of providing temporary medical relief, primarily in cases of extreme emergencies. The Bureau believed that the ultimate responsibility for providing medical care to those in need lay with Georgia civil authorities. J. W. Lawton, who served as surgeon-in-chief under General Tillson, saw the use of dispensaries as the best means of administering medical relief and the most effective approach to encourage civil officials to take on some of the cost for operating them. Lawton and his successor at various times maintained dispensaries at Albany, Americus, Brunswick, Columbus, Darien, Newton, St. Catherine's Island, St. Marys, and Stone Mountain. The Bureau's medical department also opened hospitals with the idea of eventually turning them over to state and local authorities. The Bureau maintained hospitals at Atlanta, Augusta, Columbus, Macon, and Savannah. At the height of its medical operations (1866–67), however, the agency employed just 13 physicians. Nonetheless, with its limited and over burdened medical staff, the Bureau treated more than 5,000 freedmen for various aliments and vaccinated some 20,000 freedmen and refugees against smallpox from September 1, 1865, through September 20, 1866. By September 1867, the number of freedmen treated by Bureau nearly tripled. At the end of June 1868, close to 17,000 freed men, women, and children received treatment. Despite the Bureau's efforts to treat the weak, the sick, and infirm, the mortality rate among freedmen remained high. By late 1868, most of the Bureau's medical activities ceased, and care for the destitute was turned over to local authorities.[4]

In Georgia, as in other states under the Bureau's jurisdiction, the regulation of written labor contracts between planters and freedmen was of paramount concern. General Tillson's order of October 3, 1865 (Circular Number 2), which restricted the issuing of rations only to those in need, also instructed his subordinates to "make immediate and vigorous efforts" to secure work for unemployed freedmen "where fair compensation and kind treatment will be secured to them." Upon arrival at his post in early September 1865, Tillson found the labor system in Georgia in disarray. Able-bodied freedmen were being paid from $2 to $7 per month. Many were of the notion that the Federal Government was planning to distribute land to them at Christmas or New Year's, and thus large numbers of freedmen were refusing to sign labor contracts. Planters, on the other hand, were convinced that the Bureau was the "champion" of the freedmen and totally insensitive to their concerns about freedmen and their unwillingness to labor, and were thus making little effort to prepare for the planting season.[5]

On December 22, 1865, in an effort to remove "false and mistaken impressions" held by the both planters and freedmen, Tillson issued wage guidelines that both parties were expected to follow. Under the new rules, freedmen had the right to choose their own employers, but those freedmen who refused to sign contracts after January 10, 1866, "where employers offer good wages and kind treatment," had to accept contracts that the Bureau made for them. In upper and middle Georgia, where the land was poor and unsuited for raising large quantities of corps, Tillson instructed his officers to secure contracts paying men $12–$13 per month, and $8–$10 dollars per month for women. Freedmen were to provide for their own clothing and medicines. In other parts of the state and along the coast and south-western Georgia, where "good crops" could be raised, men were to be paid $15 per month, including board and lodging, and women $10 per month. In areas where planters preferred to pay a share of the crop, the order required payment of "from one-third the gross to one half the net proceeds."[6]

Realizing that not all planters would comply with his new wage guidelines, Tillson instructed his subordinates to call on the military to enforce his orders whenever necessary. He was aware in spite of his orders, many of the contracts being signed, even some approved by his own agents, were substandard and not in compliance with his wage schedule. He made clear to both his agents and the planters that such contracts would not be recognized. To emphasize the importance of and his commitment to fair contracts and compensation for freedmen, Tillson offered transportation to freedmen to such areas as southwest Georgia and the Mississippi Valley where wages were higher. In a November 1866 report to Commissioner Howard, Tillson indicated that he had issued 381orders for transportation for some 2,947 men and 1,013 children.[7]

Safeguarding rights and securing justice for freedmen was a major area of concern for the Freedmen's Bureau. Following the Civil War, several Southern states enacted a series of laws commonly known as "black codes," which restricted the rights and legal status of freedmen. Freedmen were often given harsh sentences for petty crimes and in some instances were unable to get their cases heard in state courts. In a circular issued by Commissioner Howard on May 30, 1865 (Circular Number 5), Assistant Commissioners were directed to "adjudicate, either themselves or through officers of their appointment, all difficulties arising between negroes themselves, or between negroes and whites or Indians." In response to Howard's circular, General Tillson issued an order on November 15, 1865 (Circular Number 4), instructing his officers to hear and make determinations in cases involving freedmen in which the disputed sum did not exceed $50, or the punishment did not exceed $50 or 30 days' imprisonment. Agents were also told that they could "try offences committed by or against freedmen, provided the sentence imposed does not exceed one hundred and fifty dollars or imprisonment for at hard labor for sixty days." Tillson further ordered that "It is preferred that all cases of any importance . . . whenever under the laws there of [the State of Georgia], or by agreement of the parties . . . [where] the testimony of Freedmen can be admitted . . . the Agent will turn them over to the civil authorities for trial." To carry out Tillson's orders, agents were to establish three-member tribunals (known as freedmen's courts) consisting of a Bureau official and two citizens, one chosen by each party involved in the case.[8]

However, when the Georgia State Legislature passed an act conferring civil rights on "persons of color," approved March 17, 1866, Tillson advised his officers on April 6 (Circular Number 4) that they were no longer required to comply with Commissioner Howard's orders of May 30, 1865. While Tillson told his agents that they were to continue to follow instructions issued by him on November 6, 1865 (Circular Number 4), "all cases exceeding their jurisdiction, unless otherwise specially directed by the Department Commander, [were to] be turned over to the civil authorities of the State for adjudication." Despite the Bureau's efforts to secure justice and civil rights for freedmen in Georgia, blacks continued to complain to the agency about some of the "most fiendish and diabolical outrages" suffered by them at the hands of gangs known as "Regulators," "Jayhawkers," and the "Black-horse cavalry." Perpetrators of crimes against freedmen were often not apprehended or prosecuted by civil authorities. At various times, because of increased hostilities toward freedmen and the failure of civil authorities to take action in their cases, Bureau officials in Georgia were compelled to reassert their authority.[9]

Bureau educational activity began in Georgia in October 1865, when G. L. Eberhart was appointed as superintendent of schools (later education). In August 1867, Edward A. Ware succeeded Eberhart. In January 1869, Assistant Commissioner Maj. John R. Lewis assumed the duties of superintendent of education. Lewis served in both capacities until May 1869, when the office of Assistant Commissioner was discontinued, and remained as superintendent education until May 1870. The records of the two offices were not combined. Ware, who had been acting as assistant superintendent, remained in Georgia as acting superintendent until August 1870, when all Bureau officers except the claims agents were withdrawn from the state.

Congress's failure to provide an appropriation for the Freedmen's Bureau during it first year of operation, impacted significantly on the agency's ability to provide adequate assistance for freedmen education. With limited financial resources, the Bureau provided help when it could, and worked vigorously to encourage freedmen and Northern benevolent societies to taken on the primary responsibility for providing support for black schools. G. L. Eberhart and his successors were of the opinion that "colored people who are unwilling to help educate their children do not deserve to have schools." To encourage freedmen to participate in this self-support effort, Eberhart urged them to establish educational associations. With assistance from local Bureau agents, educational associations were established in the subdistricts of Thomasville, Bainbridge, Albany, Georgetown, Cuthbert, and Americus. In early 1866, the "pay your own way" policy led to the founding of the Georgia Educational Association (initially organized as the Georgia Equal Rights Association). The Educational Association worked closely with the Bureau and Northern aid societies and became the model "to encourage the people [freedmen] to organized effort in supporting their own schools & managing their own affairs." By the end of 1866, freedmen owned 57 schoolhouses and provided support for 96 of the 127 schools in the state. By the spring of 1867, freedmen contributions sustained some 104 schools and teachers and more than 3,000 students. During the same period, the Bureau maintained some 44 schools and 50 teachers and close to 3,100 pupils. Northern aid societies provided support for 84 schools, 78 teachers, and over 7,000 students. Freedmen also defrayed the expenses for 45 schools under the control of the Bureau and the aid societies.[10]

With the passage of the Army Appropriations Act on July 13, 1866 (14 Stat. 90), the Bureau received its first appropriation and was able to provide greater assistance in its effort to support freedmen education. In addition to providing some $21,000 for state superintendents' salaries, the Act made available $500,000 more for the rent and repair of school buildings. In the same month, Congress overrode President Andrew Johnson's veto and extended the life of the Bureau for 2 years. In this new legislation (14 Stat. 173), the Bureau was allowed to "seize, hold, use, lease, or sell" Confederate property for the purpose of educating freedmen. The act also required the Bureau to work closely with benevolent groups and to lease buildings to those associations that supplied teachers. By early July 1869, the Bureau had expended nearly $105,000 for the construction and repair of school buildings that provided accommodations for 4,690 students. The Bureau spent an additional $10,471 for the repair of buildings that provided part-time space for more than 3,500 pupils. By the time the Bureau withdrew from Georgia in 1870, the agency had contributed funds for the building of some 50 schools in the state.[11]

RECORDS DESCRIPTION

These records consist of volumes and unbound records. The volumes reproduced in this microfilm publication were originally arranged by type of record and thereunder by volume number. No numbers were assigned to series consisting of single volumes. Years later, all volumes were arbitrarily assigned numbers by the Adjutant General's Office (AGO) of the War Department after the records came into its custody. In this microfilm publication, AGO numbers are shown in parentheses to aid in identifying the volumes. The National Archives assigned the volume numbers that are not in parentheses. In some volumes, particularly in indexes and alphabetical headings of registers, there are blank numbered pages that have not been filmed.

The volumes consist of letters and endorsements sent and received, press copies of letters sent, registers of letters received, letters and orders received, special orders and circulars issued, registers of complaints, and monthly reports forwarded to the Assistant Commissioner. The unbound documents consist of letters and orders received, unregistered letters and narrative reports received, special orders and circulars issued, general orders and circulars received, monthly reports, and records relating to complaints, labor contracts, patients, and court papers.

LIST OF BOOK RECORDS OF OFFICERS

The single-volume list of book records of officers in Georgia (no date) is arranged by office, with records of the Assistant Commissioner first, followed alphabetically by locations of the subdistrict offices. Included in the list of book records are the type of record in each book or volume, the dates of the volume, and the volume number. Throughout this introductory material and in the Table of Contents, the AGO volume number appears in parentheses in the series descriptions of the records.

Major;

I have the honor to acknowledge both of your communication and money also. I went to Americus and took the dimension of all necessary work to be done there & started the work the first of the month there as Macon, on account of chasing lumber & mill facilities to get the work along, they say they do not want a ventilator in ceiling down there, but the teacher want a desk each with drawers &c but I told them I would await your order, as there was nothing said in the Order about that. The old Lady is a Brevet in herself. my work there is going ahead very well. and I have received most all the lumber. I will commence raising about the 15th. I went to Savannah on the morning of the third & returned on the morning of the 8th. I can buy 3/8 nails as cheap here as I can in Savannah, consequently I bought none there in order to save freight. I only intend to take one man with me to Americus in order to save expenses.

Yours

I will hire men down there to put up the work the job being a very short one I would wish to pay them before I come away. so as to save my going down there again. I find the men here cannot get along so well without some money during the month as they say they want to get a great many things as it is now getting on Cold weather and if you could send me two hundred & fifty (250) Dollars I would divide it amongst them during the month and also pay the sum in Americus. I bought all the dry lumber I could find in Macon today & was obliged to get Capt Hill to cash the bill as it was a cash transaction. I wish you would let me know if I can guarantee payment in one week. as in most cases I can make much better bargains by so doing. plase write as soon as convenient. I remain as ever.

Your most Ob't Servant.

Yours of Jan. 18th inst relative to the pay of officers of the Bureau retained in service under authority of Sect 4. Act of 1866. has been received. I Enclose a form of voucher for an Agt who has been a Capt of Infantry. I consider that where an officer has been paid a longevity rate by the Pay Department it belongs & him under the act referred to above. An agent who is in service of the Bureau under this act gets the fixed pay of his former grade. without Commutation of fuel & quarters. or forage & capt as provided in Circulars 23 of 1867. — Commutation of fuel & quarters is not a regular allowance of the service. but an accidental allowance provided for the comfort of officers stationed in certain localities.

Dear Sir.

I have promised Lieut. Catlett's Office Boy, Richmond, to write you a line relative to his pay for the last month. He has received twenty dollars per month, and the last payment was made him at Christmas time. I believe the Lieutenant has generally paid him on the 25th of Each month, and probably would have paid him for this months services, but for being busy with his preparations to leave town. Richmond expects to go away from Augusta next Friday to begin work on a plantation, and would like his money before he goes so as to pay his store bill &c.

I am giving you his own statements, he seems truthful. I know that he was in Lieut Catletts employ up to Monday night the 25th inst. Whether or not he has been p^d. your books & vouchers will show.

The Lieut. was not till very recently made aware that the Office was to be changed to the Bank and so of course has continued to occupy the old Office. I have suggested to Mr Ritter the Cashier that he pay the Bank rent for this month, as usual, and that the Bureau begin to pay any Office rent, dating from the first of February, and he agrees to that arrangement, if the Bureau see fit to make it.

Dear Sir

Capt. Hoag remarked today that you had written that Mr Breedin owned either one of the Bbls of Mineral Paint, if such is the decision to be same we do not care a cts or any blame, but the circumstances are these you ordered just one Bbl. of the Common & Mr Bird showed you an article of heavier body remarking it would Fill the less bbl, which you decided to accept, the Common came in Bbls of 400 lbs & the fine which you selected averaging 275 lbs - as the Bbl would not complete your order we sent two as it was cheap & exceeded it 137 lbs - Sometimes there being Several Shades one heard if one Bbl was not sufficient & an other Should be ordered, we might not be able to match it, thus you will see we acted solely in your interest, You will please regulate Mr Breedin to Ship the remaining Bbl to us notifying of Shipment. Enclose bill of W.J. White for work Done for Freedmen's School at McBean Georgia. Also 10 11 Blanks Signed by him. I would say that this bill is larger than it otherwise would be. Becaus it includes a couple of days work on the school buildings here in Augusta. also a small bill for glass & putty. and I thought that the whole had better be brought together into one Bill.

If you object to this. I will prepare Separate bills under your instructions.

Atlanta. Ga.

My Dear Sir:

I sincerely thank you for your favor of April 12th authorizing me to have repairs made on my school room at a cost of fifty dollars, and send the bill to you for settlement. The school room is 16 by 20 feet and 11 feet high. To make it comfortable it needs ceiling, and a new floor. Its present open condition seriously injured my health last winter.

To ceil it will require about 800 feet of lumber 3/4ths of an inch thick—

For the floor & three new benches 400 feet of inch lumber will be needed.

1200 feet of well seasoned lumber will therefore be required to make the room comfortable. For the best unable to have cut in vain to send seasoned lumber in this market. The County. The great fire in Madison has caused an unusual demand for lumber. I am therefore obliged to make application to you to purchase for me in Atlanta the lumber needed & send it by R.R.

to Madison You will confer
a great favor by sending me, say 800 feet of planed ceiling, (or unplaned if planed cannot be had) and 400 feet of flooring. I have a carpenter engaged, a skilful workman who will do the work well. Please send a bill of the lumber so that I may know how to regulate the other expenses so as not to have them exceed the $50 mentioned.

I remain

Dr. Sir:

About 2 months since I sent some trades for transportation to Atlanta that was returned unforwarded.— Now during the past six weeks I have paid for buying hire and feed on the cars, and mill charges, (the latter $4 only) $24.70— Can I draw a voucher for this?—

The first item was a trip to Newton Baker Co. to make the Freedmen there for the purpose of raising money to build a school house.— Capt. Clark is the agent there, but he is not an officer in such matters, & I cannot collect the money, can I make a charge ~~of for~~ to the Co. Fund? Co.— The expenses $10.70—

The next was $5.00 for team to go to Albany, 14 miles, to see about the purchase of 4 acres Land for a school for Freedmen, and clench the bargain the land my self- holding it for the Freedmen— at the price I paid.—

The 3rd item was a trip to Thomasville to employ with Capt. White, concerning buildings there, the necessity of having soldiers to protect the election and he aid me in making affidavits seizures. This after I had written several times.

The expense was $9.—

If you can send me any word of advice that will help me to recover even a part of the above
I should be greatly obliged—

Yours respectfully,
for Old Scout,

I have also in telegraphing for Silvers & Tumacacillo, and in sending a dispatch been to the expense of $ 5.50— Can I be reimbursed?

I find the greatest difficulty in getting rent this month in consequence of the houses being bid for. and I do not think I will get rent for any of the houses on side the Armory fence. I have stated the case to Col Flagler and will send him ale I receive.

There seems nothing for me to do now, and I beg to be permitted to return, as the few houses inside the Armory fence are let to responsible persons and the house I live in, will readily find a good tenant; and it will not be much trouble for Capt Hill to account for the proceeds, and superintend the three Watchmen

I wish to leave here on the 10th inst as I am going up the Arkansas River and wish to start whilst that stream is in boating order.

I will give Capt Hill a copy of my last pay roll. pen role. and all other information he may require.

P. S.

The lightening last night struck the gate marked "Macon Armory" and tore it down together with a large portion of the fence.

There was also a charge of $8 for Hardman for Hackl. I can not conveniently obtain vouchers, and I have consolidated it with the charge for benches, which I hope may be allowed.

The Navy lumber is costing me a great deal. I could not get it nearer Newton. A bill of $19.50 for Ferriage has been sent me in addition. I could buy no beam there and was forced to send from here.

Everything is on the lot now ready for the carpenters except shingles. I can get no one there to procure them, and expect to get them in B. also.

Sir

I have the honor to report that, in compliance with the instructions contained in your letter dated Aug 30-1867. I have sent for a workman to make an estimate of the Amount it would cost to put the second Well at the Hospt in working order, and have succeeded as follows; The Well will be cleaned, deepened, Curbed, a Well House erected and shingled for the sum of ($20 ÷) Twenty dollars.

I have the honor to request that these repairs may be ordered to be carried out at once, as the supply of water in the Old Well has almost entirely failed & is unfit for the use of the Hospt.

I have also the honor to request that the same Workman may be employed to erect a shade room at the North End of the Dispensary, as this accommodation is much wanted, and the need will be more and more felt as the cold

Requests that vouchers for chairs purchased in New York be sent direct to Rev. E. P. Smith, 53 St John St N.Y.

THE AMERICAN MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION has been working twenty years for the African race. Since the beginning of the Rebellion it has turned special attention to the Freedmen. It has now over 300 Teachers and Missionaries among them. Whatever a wise Christian benevolence prompts in their behalf, by way of Schools, Orphan Homes, Relief for the suffering, and direct religious effort, the Association undertakes, to the full extent of the means furnished by the friends of the colored people,

Dear Sir,

Yesterday I received letter from Mr. Smith saying he had purchased the chairs at a cost of $3.10, & desiring that blanks be sent him if teachers are necessary from them or if the bills could be made out here. If so please send them direct to Rev. E. P. Smith 53 John St. N.Y.

If Desks can be made the 160 odd, or 50 double desks would cost $4.00 or $5 per double desk, according to Mr. Bentley's estimate, I have had some knowledge of their cost, having had some made at Macon, & I think Hirst's a fair estimate of the cost of their manufacture. In their present conveniences, [illegible] I must you will see that chairs [illegible] can be [illegible] extra expense, & I think a saving of at least $50.

Hagner's letter of June 21st 1865 that the Privilege of Land, west of the Canal, forming a part of the Augusta Arsenal be not disposed of by the Ordnance Department, for a Magazine Lot, upon the payment to your Bureau of its appraised value, which suggestion also received your approval under date of 31st ult. You will therefore cause Bvt. Lt. Col. Hagner to meet such officer as you may designate on the part of your Bureau, to appraise the said Land, & that if they cannot agree upon a price, then for the two to unite and select a third person to act as umpire whose award shall be binding, and to pay to such Officer or person as you may authorize to receive the same, the sum at which the Land shall be appraised.

I have also to inform you that Bvt Lt Col Flagler has been directed to turn over with the least possible delay, with the exception of the Land hereinbefore referred to, all the Real Estate, in his charge, according to the order of the Secretary of War of 6th March 1867, which consists of the Property at Macon and the Augusta Powder works.

Respectfully your Obt, Svt.

Major,

I have the honor to report that the frame buildings situated on the grounds of the Richmond County Academy at Augusta Ga. seven in number, size 100 ft. by 41 ft. & one 28½ ft. by 14½ ft. which have been used by the garrison of that post since its occupation until now, have been vacated by the troops with the exception of one building, & I would recommend that they be sold, excepting one building to be reserved & removed for use of freedmen's hospital

I would also report that by removing this building & putting it up in connection with a number of other frame buildings in use as a hospital at Augusta Ga. on land which belongs to that city, the buildings now occupied for that hospital purposes on what is known as the Government Foundry & Machine Works could be vacated, making less expense to the Government & leaving that property, which consists of one lot 690 ft. by 392 ft. with two large brick buildings & one or two small ones, together with thirteen small city lots ready for sale & I would recommend that this property also be sold together with the other mentioned at public action

Sir

I have the honor to enclose herewith Transportation account for Month of September corrected in accordance with instructions received from Lt J Watson Asst Adjt Genl. Also corrected Voucher for rent. The discrepancy in the rent of August & September was caused by my having an entire building large enough for Office & Store house at $25 per month allowing $18. for Office and $7. for Store house. On discharging Store house August 31st I tried to rent the building for $18. per month but could not. And being unable to find another immediately I kept it at $20 per month. But having done so without authority I caused it to agree with August. I have since found cheaper rent. I also inclose telegram account corrected

I have the honor to transmit herewith Receipted Vouchers for the professional services of S. P. Hammond Atty at Law for the purposes set forth in said Vouchers. I have no authority to employ said Counsel in such cases and was under the necessity of guaranteeing the payment of the same. Should the Bureau refuse to do so. The case was simply this. A Freedman named Hal Slocum pro his rented a small piece of land and two coal & iron factors on a portion of it. Claimed that some one had been stealing some of his roasting ears so he loaded his shot gun with Buck shot went out in his field last night and when the thief made his appearance in his field he shot him — killing him almost instantly. the Citizens & Attys generally applauded the act — three Lawyers volunteered to defend said Stevenson — many said he ought to be rewarded — by getting up a purse for him and it would be a precedent from which it would be generally understood that a man might shoot another when found in his yard or lot — and especially when taking a few ears of corn — Under such circumstances I took the liberty to employ Counsel and succeeded in having said Stevenson — committed for manslaughter

It is unnecessary for me to point out to you the evil tendency or result — to the Colld People that an acquittal under such circumstances would have produced. For life of a Freedman is considered of but little worth among a large portion of the white Citizens of my Dist — and I felt in duty bound to use every Effort to have this man convicted — believing him guilty & a dangerous Criminal. With these remarks the proceedings are respectfully submitted

The Asst. Comr. desires to remove some of the Barracks on the Academy Grounds to the site of the present Hospital belonging to the City so as to concentrate the entire Hospital on that side of the Street and sell the other property. In order to do this he directs that you obtain from the City Council a grant of the use of the ground so long as the Government may use it for Hospital or dispensary purposes. I presume they will do it for the benefit of the poor in their midst. Attend to it as soon as possible, and forward the papers as soon as possible.
